Sunday, August 8, 2021 – 4:00 PM

HARRINGTON OPERA HOUSE

S. Third St., Harrington, WA 99134

Admission by donation.

Featuring pianist Dr. Andres Jaramillo; area musicians Stephen and Rebecca Hardy, and flutist Alicia Mielke. The program includes solo music from Chopin, Bach, Rachmaninoff, and more, plus duets, songs, and a special flute collaboration.

Dr. Andrés Jaramillo serves as faculty at the Collinsworth School of Music at California Baptist University where he teaches Applied Piano, Chamber Music, Senior Recital Class, Musicianship, and Music in Global Cultures. Aside from teaching, Dr. Jaramillo keeps an exciting and active career as a solo and collaborative pianist, clinician and conductor. He has performed internationally as well as throughout the United States.

Rebecca Hardy earned both a Bachelor of Music degree in Piano Performance and a Master of Music degree in Music Performance from Eastern Washington University and has always loved the vast classical repertoire of the piano. She also plays collaboratively with musicians in the Spokane area and resides in Harrington, WA with her husband Stephen where she maintains a private studio, prepares live performances, and plays with a worship group. Find her on YouTube at <https://bit.ly/3wxr1OE>

Stephen Hardy studied music at Eastern Washington University and has shared his beautiful baritone voice and saxophone playing at previous Harrington Opera House events. He grew up in Harrington and returned to work in the computer field from home and serves in several organizational roles to support Harrington.

Alicia Mielke received her Masters of Music from New England Conservatory studying with Paula Robison in 2013 and her Bachelors of Music, summa cum laude, from The University of Texas at Austin with Marianne Gedigian in 2011. She has given multiple recitals in her family's barn in Harrington, WA with donations taken to benefit the Harrington Food Bank and Spokane Public Radio. She is currently farming with her parents and fiancé in the Harrington & Odessa area.

This is the first performance event in the Opera House since fall of 2019!
